Thank you so much for your donation to help the Crisis in Kenya.

The Joseph Waweru Home School is housing 26 people in addition to our regular children and staff. Ginger Wilson, a Belfast, Maine resident currently residing in Kenya, has about 30 people in her home. Neighbors near the JWHS have also opened up their homes to refugees.

Refugees select from donated clothing located at a central site

David Mwangi and Pastor Waweru have been very busy locating all the assistance available to these people, purchasing food, and transporting displaced families to other family members living in safer areas of Kenya.

The schools in Mangu have opened. To keep life as normal as possible for the children, we have purchased uniforms and enrolled all the children residing at the Home.

Your wonderful donation, along with the donations from others like yourself, has made it possible for us to extend this assistance. Though the country is far from stable, we have started assessing each individual family to help develop a resettlement plan. Some may never be able to return to their home area. Some have no home at all.

Our “regular” boys at the Joseph Waweru Home School have been reaching out to the new children making them feel at home and bringing as much happiness into their lives as they can.

Thank you
